

Goldmedal unveils Air-Q: A Compact Masterpiece in Personal Cooling

Mumbai, 30th June 2025 – Goldmedal Electricals, one of India's leading Fast Moving Electrical Goods (FMEG) companies, introduces Air-Q – a compact and powerful personal fan. It is designed to redefine personal cooling with style, efficiency, and smart functionality.

The 6-inch Air-Q is engineered for powerful yet personalised cooling. With four speed settings, including a calming Natural Breeze mode, along with a wide 270-degree rotation, it ensures optimal air circulation across any space. A built-in LED light with three brightness levels adds utility—ideal for night-time use or during power outages.

Crafted from high-grade plastic for durability, Air-Q is powered by a 2400mAh rechargeable battery, delivering up to 4 hours of backup. Its minimalist design and thoughtful features make it perfect for workstations, study desks, or compact living spaces.

Key features of the Air-Q personal fan include:

- Desk & Wall Mountable: Flexible placement options for maximum utility.
- Aerodynamic Blades: Engineered for smooth, efficient air circulation.
- Custom Cooling: 4-speed settings including Natural Breeze Mode on the fourth level for a soft, shifting airflow.
- Built-in LED Light: Features a 3-mode LED light for ambient or emergency lighting.
- Versatile Charging Options: Supports fast and convenient Type-C USB charging.
- Smart LED Indicators: Displays charging and battery status clearly.
- 10W Power Consumption: Energy-efficient performance for sustainable usage.
- Back-up of up to 4 Hours: Long-lasting rechargeable battery for uninterrupted cooling.
- Silent Operation: Low-noise motor ensures minimal disturbance.

Speaking on the launch, Bishan Jain, Director, Goldmedal Electricals, said, “Our focus has always been on staying ahead of the curve, understanding how consumer needs are shifting and delivering solutions that are not only relevant today but built for tomorrow. Air-Q is a reflection of that philosophy. It’s a result of our continued commitment to purposeful innovation—where technology, design, and everyday functionality come together to enrich modern lifestyles. We’re not just launching a product; we’re reinforcing our promise to lead through insight, agility, and meaningful progress.”

Air-Q is available on Amazon at ₹2,560 and comes with a one-year warranty.
