The screenshot shows a webpage from 'ARCHITECT and INTERIORS INDIA'. The page features two images of Goldmedal i-Touch Wi-Fi switches: one in red and one in black. Below the images is a caption: 'The appliance is fitted with blue backlit LED touch buttons that make it convenient to operate the unit in the dark.' The article text includes the date '03 Jun 2019' and the headline 'Goldmedal Electricals launches its i-Touch Wi-Fi Switch range'. A sub-headline reads: 'Goldmedal Electricals introduces a range of home automation switches compatible with Amazon Alexa and Google Assist'. The main text begins with 'A known name in the fast-moving electrical goods (FMEG) company, Goldmedal Electricals has introduced i-Touch Wi-Fi Switches, a range of home automation switches that can be operated manually as well as via remote control, mobile app and voice commands – viz. Amazon Alexa and Google'. To the right, there is a 'Trending' section with a link to 'Five architecture and design firms decode luxury homes in contemporary India' dated 23 Jun 2019, and another link to 'Ottimo launches Dragonfly' dated 11 Jun 2019.
